

Ken's Red Trail Hike / Bike

Level of difficulty: Medium to Difficult

Starting Point: Dry camp gate

Ending Point: Dog Walk gate:

Total Length: 8.7 miles

14.1 Km

Elevation Change: 416 ft.

126.7m

Please Note: These trails have some short but steep accents and descents. Hiking boots and walking sticks are recommended. Also if biking a mountain bike and some mountain biking skills are suggested for these trails.

Directions:

1. Go out the FOY Dry Camp gate, go across road to trail marked with red rocks. Stay RIGHT on intersections.
2. Drop 18 - Go up and around the boulders, turn RIGHT onto the dirt road then LEFT back onto the trail.
3. Old Van and firepit. Stay to the RIGHT on the red trail. Cross Coachella Canal road and Frink road.
4. Intersection with Green trail. Turn RIGHT on the Red Trail.
5. Near the entrance to FOY at the intersection with the Green Trail take the LEFT Red trail and go to the outer loop of Denny's Speedway.
6. At Denny's Speedway take the outer loop, (not the well worn inner loop). You should end up at the lower end of FOY's maintenance yard, cross SPA road.
7. Take an immediate RIGHT onto the Red Trail.
8. Follow the Red Trail to the intersection with the White Trail. Turn RIGHT and follow the White Trail to the first LEFT hand intersection. Follow it to the Dog Gate at FOY.

Welcome Home! You made it!

